GREENE COUNTY PLANNING COMMISSION

TYPICAL LAND DEVELOPMENT PROCESS

1. Developer calls and schedules an appointment to meet with County Planner (724-852-5300).
2. County Planner and Developer meet – this is called the Pre-Application Conference.
 - a. The Planner provides the Developer with a checklist and goes over each step with the Developer (the Checklist is Step 3 in this packet).
 - b. In some cases, the Planning Commission Chairman or the Planning Director is requested to attend the Pre-Application meeting.
 - c. The Planner also recommends to the Developer that they should become familiar with the ordinance Article VI and VIII are available on our website: <http://www.co.greene.pa.us/secured/gc2/depts/ed/plancomm/SALDO-GC-2013.pdf> pages 53 and 75. It can also be purchased as a hard-copy, or emailed electronically.
3. The Developer completes the Checklist and submits a packet of information as well as site plan.
4. The Planner reviews the submission in great detail, and within three days has a written review letter that is submitted to the Developer, the Planning Director, and all nine Planning Commission Members.
 - a. This letter details any deficiencies and highlights ways for the Developer to comply with the ordinance.
 - b. The letter also notes questions that the Commission may ask of the Developer.
 - c. In some instances, the review letter may be submitted via email to make the delivery of the letter more efficient for the Developer.
5. The Developer submits the new information and the Planner compares this with the review letter. The Planner will contact the Developer via phone or email to clarify any deficiencies.
6. On the Monday of the meeting, the Planner contacts the Developer and makes sure they are ready and prepared for the meeting.
7. At the meeting, the Planner overviews the project for the Commission and distributes the initial review letter which is the basis for all questions. The Planner also adds a “Checklist of all Required Items” so that the Commission understands what items are included or missing.
8. The Developer gives an overview as requested by the Commission. At any point, the public may question any parts of the project, and the questions will be answered by the appropriate official.

AT THIS POINT, THE COMMISSION RENDERS A DECISION ON THE PROJECT. THE THREE PHASES OF APPROVAL ARE: Plan Acceptance, Preliminary Approval and Final Approval.

9. In many cases, following final approval, the Planning Director and Solicitor draft a Developer’s Agreement which holds the Developer accountable to all that was approved on the site plan and application.
10. The Chairman and Secretary sign the approved plans and the plan is filed in the Planning Office.
